

The Shop Rag

Merry Christmas to all!

Street rods move the body. Roadsters move the soul!!!

Life may begin at 30, but it doesn't get real interesting until about 80 mph.

You start the game of life with a full pot of luck and an empty pot of experience. The object is to fill the pot of experience before you empty the pot of luck.

If you wait, all that happens is that you get older.

Roadsters can never hold everything you want, but they CAN hold everything you need.

The only good view of a thunderstorm is in your rear view mirror.

Don't drive so late into the night that you sleep through the sunrise.

Sometimes it takes a whole tank of gas before you can think straight.

Never hesitate to drive past the last street light at the edge of town.

Never do less than forty miles before breakfast.

One roadster on the road is worth two other rods in the garage.

Young rodders pick a destination and go. Old rodders pick a direction and go.

Whatever it is, it's better to do it in the wind.

Two-lane blacktop isn't a highway, it's an attitude.

Street Rodders are like roadsters; each is customized a bit differently.

The best alarm clock is sunshine on chrome.

A real friend is someone who'll get out of bed at 2 am to drive his pickup to the middle of nowhere to get you when you're broken down.

Catching a wasp in your shirt at 70 mph can double your vocabulary.

If you want to get somewhere before sundown, you can't stop at every bar.

There's something ugly about a street rod on a trailer.

A long ride can clear your mind, restore your faith and use up a lot of gas.

If you can't get it going with a few wrenches, wire and electrical tape, it's serious.

Never try to race an old geezer in a roadster, he may have one more gear than you.

Roadsters parked out front, means good chicken-fried steak inside.

You can forget what you do for a living when your knees are in the breeze.

Life is too short to drive a Jappa.

Even a rainy day driving a roadster is better than working.

Only a roadster owner knows why a dog sticks his head out the car window.

There are two types of people in this world; people who drive roadsters and people who wish they could.

To All,

As the year end closes upon us we all look back and reminisce on the scheduled monthly events and/or the car shows we attended. The scheduled monthly events would not have been possible without the dedication from Gary & Aggie Frazier. A million thanks go out to them for their hard work. We also remember the great trip to the Lew Webb Auto Museum in Irvine which was coordinated by Jim & Leilani Hosking. Nor can we forget the bus trip to the Petersen's Auto Museum in downtown Los Angeles or the train trip to Union Station and lunch at Olvera Street.

Over the Hill Gang night at Cruising Grand and pizza with the North County and San Diego chapters was another memorable event. But how about the progressive dinner, the ice cream night, the summer picnic and our yearly Christmas party? All were special times which club members enjoyed each other's company and exchanged family and gear head talk.

Yes, the club has had many social events but we also participated in many car shows from which our members brought home tons of brass. We again supported the Loma Linda Veterans Hospital car show and gave a check to the Vets for $750.00. This Christmas we are supporting the Grandparents Raising Grandchildren with eight $25.00 gift cards and also providing donated animal food, blanks and such to the Fallbrook Animal Lodge.

Several of our clubs members have suffered medical problems throughout the year but with our prayers and support all have recovered. We continue to give our prayers to Sally Dawn as she goes through her breast cancer therapy.

I have truly enjoyed being your President this year and look forward to just sitting back and being a member next year. I know Keith will make a great President and you couldn't ask for a better first lady than Helen. Our new Board will lead the club well as our family of members will continue to enjoy their hobby.

Paulette and I would like to wish each of you a very Merry Christmas and New Year. God bless each of you and your families. Thanks for a great year.
