President's Message

Hi Gang,

I wish to thank everyone for their participation in our club events.

Your attendance and support is appreciated.

Don't forget, October is the month of nominations for the upcoming club officer elections for next year. If you would like to help the club keep moving along. Please consider running for office. Let the nominating committee (Dave Maxwell, Dave Lazzarini and Charlie Lieber) know you are willing to do your part. The club needs your participation in this also. A club cannot survive if there are not members willing to serve as officers.

And just a reminder, Flu season is upon us. Be sure to get your Flu shot and protect yourself against this potentially deadly virus.

Sunshine Report:

Kay Johnson has been in hospital for heart surgeries. She is home now and recovering. If you know anyone who needs to be sent a card, please call Helen Manley who is the Sunshine Secretary.

Merchandise: Nothing to report.

Events Manager: Dave Maxwell reported on various events coming up.

Temecula Rod Run is March 2 & 3. We have parking on 5th Avenue for the whole club. Jim Troehler will be arranging for food for us. More later.

Vets Car Show in Loma Linda is Oct. 1st.

Murrieta Rod Run is Oct. 13 & 14 and we will be in the Shootist Parking Lot. Charlie mentioned that our club members donated items for use in this car show auction.

NSRA is considering creating a second event per year. More later.

Committee Reports: Larry McNair, Chairman of the Club Christmas Party reported that the Menifee Lakes Golf Club has been booked for Thursday, Dec. 7th. Entrees include beef, chicken, and fish. The price per person will be $45.00 pp. The Club will subsidize anything over that price which will be determined by the number of people who attend the dinner.

Leilani passed out flyers for each to sign and choose their entrée. She would like those flyers returned to her with your check as soon as possible.

Old Business: None at this time.

New Business:

Members can now register on our website to list parts, get messages, etc. It is very easy to do. Eventually the merchandise will be available on the website.

Diane wants to give up the merchandise responsibilities. Leilani volunteered to take over.

Fran and George Ness have been showing the airflow at various car shows in the northwest. They have won several awards.

Karl has found some windbreakers that he can get for any member that wants one. They are for sale and has the club logo printed on them. See Karl if you are interested.

Parts for Sale: None

50/50 Raffle: $150 was collected. Dee Dee won $75.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 8:00 pm.

The next meeting will be Thursday, October 26, at Richie's Diner

Dinner 5:30 pm. Meeting 7:00pm.

The Shop Rag minutes will be posted on the OTHG website.

Dee Dee Amsler, Secretary
